3. NAME. The name by which the property submitted hereunder shall be known as "George H. Williams Condominium".

4. UNITS.

4.1 General Description of Building. The George H. Williams Condominium was built in 1883. The building is wood framed with a wood sided exterior. It is of traditional design with a steeply pitched gable roof. The building consists of three stories above ground and a basement.

4.2 General Description, Location and Designation of Units. There are ten (10) units comprised of four (4) one-bedroom units, five (5) two-bedroom units, and one (1) three-bedroom unit. The dimensions, designation, and location of each unit are shown in the plans recorded simultaneously herewith. The designation, location and area in square feet of each unit are shown on the Plat and the attached Exhibit B which is incorporated herein. The building consists of three stories above ground and a basement.

4.3 Boundaries of Units. Each unit shall be bounded horizontally from the face of the stud of its perimeter and bearing walls, windows and doors. The basement level units shall be bounded from the surface of the concrete floor to face of the ceiling framing. The ground floor, second floor and third floor units shall be bounded vertically from the top of the subfloor to the face of the ceiling framing. Units shall include all the airspace so encompassed. In addition, each unit shall include the outlet of any utility service lines including water, sewer, gas or electricity, ventilating ducts within the unit which shall not include any part of such lines or ducts themselves.

5. GENERAL COMMON ELEMENTS. Each unit shall be entitled to an undivided percentage ownership interest in the common elements determined by the ratio which the area of the unit bears to the total area of all the units combined as shown on Exhibit "B" attached hereto and made a part hereof. The general common elements consist of the following:

5.1 The land, pathways, fences, and grounds, if any.

5.2 Pipes, ducts, flues, chutes, conduits, wires, and other utility installations to their outlets.

5.3 Roofs, foundations, bearing walls, perimeter walls, beams, columns, and girders to the interior surfaces thereof.

5.4 Hallways, stairways, entrances and exits, which are not part of the units or limited common elements.

5.5 The entry porch shown on page 3 of the Plat and the elevator.

5.6 All other elements of the building and the property necessary or convenient to their existence, maintenance and safety, or normally in common use, except as may be expressly designated herein as part of a unit or a limited common element.

6. LIMITED COMMON ELEMENTS. The following shall constitute limited common elements, the use of which shall be restricted to the units which purchase them:

6.1 The seven (7) parking spaces on the property are as shown on the plans recorded herewith. Six (6) decks as shown on the plans recorded herewith. Unit numbers 3, 4, 5, 6 and 9 have been assigned limited common element decks. Ten (10) storage closets shown on the plans recorded herewith. The assignment of parking space and storage closet limited common elements will take place upon sale of units and will be assigned per the terms of the Unit Sales Agreement. Upon assignment of all limited common elements, this Declaration will be amended to refer to such assignments.

7. USE OF PROPERTY: MAINTENANCE.

7.1 Each unit is to be used for residential purposes as described in the Bylaws. Additional limitations on use are contained in the Bylaws and the rules and regulations adopted pursuant to the Bylaws. Each unit owner shall be bound by each of the terms, conditions, limitations, and provisions contained in such documents.

7.2 The necessary work to maintain, repair, or replace the common elements shall be the responsibility of the Board of Directors of the Association and shall be carried out as provided in the Bylaws. The Association and its agents shall have a license upon reasonable notice to enter any unit or limited common element necessary to maintain or replace any common element. Pursuant to ORS 100.405 (5) and (8), the Association shall have the authority to grant leases, easements, rights of way licenses and other similar interests affecting the general and limited common elements of the condominium and consent to the vacation of roadways within and adjacent to the condominium.

If the mortgagee or beneficiary of any unit determines that the Board of Directors is not providing an adequate maintenance, repair and replacement program for the common elements, such mortgagee or beneficiary, at its option, may deliver a notice to the Board of Directors by delivering same to the registered agent, setting forth the particular defect which it believes exists in the maintenance, repair and replacement program. If the specified defects are not corrected within ninety (90) days subsequent to receipt of such notice, the mortgagee or beneficiary, upon written notice to the registered agent that it is exercising its proxy rights thereunder, shall have the right to attend succeeding annual or special meetings of the Association and to cast a vote for each unit on which it holds a mortgage or deed of trust on all business coming before such meeting, which proxy rights shall continue until the defects listed on the notice are corrected.

8. COMMON PROFITS AND EXPENSES: VOTING

8.1 The common profits derived from and the common expenses of the general common elements shall generally be distributed and charged to the owner of each unit according to the percentage of undivided interest of such unit in the common elements as determined by the ratio which the unit bears to the total area of all the units combined as shown in Exhibit "B" attached hereto and made a part hereof, except legal/accounting, trash removal and common element area maintenance/repairs will be charged equally to units. In addition, gas shall be allocated according to the gas allocation percentages set forth in Exhibit B. In addition, The Declarant shall establish a Reserve Account in compliance with ORS 100.175 Common element maintenance shall be defined as the day-to-day cleaning and up-keep of the common elements but shall not include capital improvements, replacement, and/or repair to structural elements. Maintenance, repairs and replacement of the limited common elements shall be made by the Association but charged to the unit owner to whose unit the limited element is assigned.

8.2 Each unit owner shall be entitled to one vote in the affairs of the Association of unit owners for each unit owned by him/her. "Majority" or "majority of unit owners", as used in this Declaration or in the Bylaws shall mean the owners of more than fifty percent (50%) of the then-existing units of the condominium.

9. SERVICE OF PROCESS. The name of the person to receive service of process is named in the Condominium Information Report, which will be filed with The Oregon Real Estate Agency in accordance with ORS 100.250 (1).

an Oregon Limited Liability Company

ARTICLE I

PLAN OF UNIT OWNERSHIP

1. Name and Location. These are the Bylaws of the ASSOCIATION OF UNIT OWNERS OF GEORGE H. WILLIAMS CONDOMINIUM (hereinafter the "Association"). GEORGE H. WILLIAMS CONDOMINIUM, (hereinafter the "condominiums") are located in the City of Portland, Multnomah County, Oregon, and have been submitted to the Oregon Condominium Act by a Declaration filed simultaneously herewith (hereinafter called the "Declaration"). The location of the condominiums is more specifically described in the Declaration.
2. Principal Office. The principal office of the Association shall be located at 133 N.W. 18th Avenue, Portland, Oregon, 97209.
3. Purposes. This Association is formed under the provisions of the Oregon Condominium Act to serve as the means through which the Declarant and its successors and assigns may take action with regard to the administration, management and operation of the condominiums. The Association will be an unincorporated association.
4. Applicability of Bylaws. The Association, all unit owners and all persons using the condominium property shall be subject to these Bylaws and to all rules and regulations which may be promulgated hereunder.
5. Personal Application. All present or future owners, tenants, future tenants or their employees, or any other person that might use the facilities of said real property in any manner, are subject to the regulations set forth in these Bylaws and to the restrictions, provisions, conditions and regulations set forth in the recorded Declaration.

The mere acquisition or rental of any of the units (as defined in the recorded Declaration) of said real property or the mere act of occupancy of any of said units will signify that these Bylaws and the provisions of the recorded Declaration are accepted, ratified and will be complied with.

6. Composition of Association. The Association shall be composed of all the unit owners of the condominiums, including Cathedral Condominiums, LLC, its successors and assigns (hereinafter, the "developer"), and the Association, itself, to the extent any of these own any unit or units of the condominiums.

7. Definitions.

- (a) Adoption by Reference. The definitions contained in or adopted by the Declaration shall be applicable to these Bylaws.
- (b) Percentage of Unit Owners. Whenever a percentage of unit owners is specified herein, such percentage means the owners of that percentage of the total number of unit owners existing in the condominium except that where there are multiple owners of a single unit all such owners taken together shall constitute one owner for the purpose of calculating the percentage.
- (c) Mortgage and Mortgagee. As used herein, the terms "mortgage" and "mortgagee" shall include, respectively, a deed of trust and the beneficiary of a deed of trust.

ARTICLE II

TURNOVER MEETING AND INITIAL MEETING

1. Time of Meeting. The Declarant shall call a turnover meeting within ninety (90) days of the expiration of the earlier of three years from the date of the conveyance of the first unit to a person other than the Declarant or conveyance of fifty percent (50%) of the units. This shall be the initial meeting of the Association.

2. Notice. The Declarant shall give notice of the turnover meeting in accordance with the Bylaws of the Association to each unit owner at least seven (7) but not more than fifty (50) days prior to the meeting. The notice shall state the purpose of the meeting and the time and place where it is to be held. If the turnover meeting is not called by the Declarant within the time specified, the meeting may be called and notice given by any unit owner or any first mortgagee of the unit.

3. Relinquishment of Control. At the turnover meeting, the Declarant shall relinquish control of the administration of the Association and the unit owners shall elect a Board of Directors in accordance with the Bylaws of the Association. At the turnover meeting, the Declarant shall deliver to the association all items, articles and documents specified in ORS § 100.210.

4. Continuing Developer Responsibility. In order to facilitate an orderly transition, during the three-month period following the turnover meeting, the Declarant or an informed representative shall be available to meet with the Board of Directors on at least three mutually acceptable dates to review the documents delivered under Section 3 of this Article.

If the Declarant has complied with the provisions of these Bylaws, unless the Declarant otherwise has sufficient voting rights as a unit owner to control the Association, the developer shall not be responsible for the failure of the unit owners to comply with Section 3 of this Article and the Declarant shall be relieved of any further responsibility for the administration of the Association except as a unit owner of any unsold unit.

ARTICLE III

MEETINGS OF ASSOCIATION

1. Place of Meetings. The Association shall hold meetings at such suitable place convenient to the unit owners as may be designated by the Board of Directors from time-to-time.

2. Annual Meetings. The annual meetings of the Association shall be held in the months of January or February at such hour and on such date as the Chairperson may designate, or if the chairperson should fail to designate such date by the first day of February, then on the last Tuesday in February. The annual meetings shall be for the purposes of electing directors and for the transaction of such other business as may properly come before the meeting.

3. Special Meetings. Special meetings of the Association may be called by the chairperson or secretary or by a majority of the Board of Directors, and must be called by such officers upon receipt of a written request from at least thirty percent (30%) of the unit owners stating the purpose of the meeting. Business transacted at a special meeting shall be confined to the purposes stated in the notice.

4. Notice of Meetings. Notice of all meetings of the Association stating the time and place and the purpose for which the meeting is being called shall be given by the chairperson or secretary. Such notice shall be in writing and mailed to each unit owner at his/her address as it appears on the books of the Association not less than ten (10) days nor more than fifty (50) days prior to the date of the meeting. Proof of such mailing shall be given by the affidavit of the person giving the notice. In addition, notice of the meeting shall be posted at least three (3) days prior to the meeting at a prominent place on the property. Notice of meeting may be waived by any unit owner before or after meetings. When a meeting is adjourned for less than thirty (30) days, no notice of the adjourned meeting need be given other than by announcement at the meeting at which such adjournment takes place.

5. Voting. Each unit owner shall be entitled to one vote in the affairs of the Association for each unit owned by him. The developer shall be entitled to vote as the unit owner of any then existing units retained by the developer, and the Board of Directors shall be entitled to vote on behalf of any unit which has been acquired by or on behalf of the Association; provided, however, that the Board of Directors shall not be entitled to vote such units in any elections of directors.

6. Proxies. A vote may be cast in person or by proxy. A proxy given by a unit owner to any person who represents such owner at meetings of the Association shall be in writing, signed by such owner, and filed with the secretary. No proxy shall be valid after the meeting for which it was solicited, unless otherwise expressly stated in the proxy, and every proxy shall automatically cease upon sale of the unit by its owner. A unit owner may pledge or assign his/her voting rights to a mortgagee. In such a case, the mortgagee or its designated representative shall be entitled to receive all notices to which the unit owner is entitled hereunder and to exercise the unit owner's voting rights from and after the time that the mortgagee shall give written notice of such pledge or assignment to the Board of Directors.

7. Fiduciaries and Joint Owners. An executor, administrator, guardian or trustee may vote, in person or by proxy, at any meeting of the Association with respect to any unit owned or held by him in such capacity, whether or not the same shall have been transferred to his name; provided, that he shall satisfy the secretary that he is the executor, administrator, guardian or trustee, holding such unit in such capacity. Whenever any unit is owned by two or more persons jointly, according to the records of the Association, the vote of such unit may be exercised by any one of the owners then present, in the absence of protest by a co-owner. In the event of such protest, no one co-owner shall be entitled to vote without the approval of all co-owners. In the event of disagreement among the co-owners, the vote of such unit shall be disregarded completely in determining the proportions of votes given with respect to such matter.

8. Quorum of Unit Owners. At any meeting of the Association, fifty percent (50%) of the unit owners, computed as provided in Article I, Section 7(b), present in person or by proxy, shall constitute a quorum. The subsequent joinder of a unit owner in the action taken at a meeting by signing and concurring in the minutes thereof shall constitute the presence of such person for the purpose of determining a quorum. When a quorum is once present to organize a meeting, it cannot be broken by the subsequent withdrawal of a unit owner or owners. If any meeting of members cannot be organized because of a lack of quorum, the members who are present, either in person or by proxy, may adjourn the meeting from time-to-time until a quorum is present.

9. Majority Vote. The vote of more than fifty percent (50%) of the unit owners, computed as provided in Article I, Section 7(b), present in person or by proxy, at a meeting at which a quorum is constituted shall be binding upon all unit owners for all purposes except where a higher percentage vote is required by law, by the Declaration or by these Bylaws.

- (a) Calling of the roll and certifying of proxies; this Article. All directors shall be owners or co-owners of units of the condominiums. For purposes of this section, the officers of any corporate owner and the partners of any partnership shall be considered co-owners of any units owned by such corporation or partnership.

2. Election and Term of Office. At the turnover meeting after fifty (50%) of the units have been sold and conveyed to purchasers, three (3) directors shall be elected, two for two-year terms and one for a one-year term. Thereafter, at the expiration of the initial term of office of each director, his/her successor shall be elected to serve for a term of two years so that the term of no less than one-third of the directors shall expire annually. Directors shall hold office until their respective successors have been elected by the unit owners. Election shall be by plurality.

3. Vacancies. Vacancies in the Board of Directors caused by any reason other than the removal of a director by a vote of the Association shall be filled by vote of the majority of the remaining directors, even though they may constitute less than a quorum, or by a sole remaining director. Each person so elected to fill the unexpired term shall be confirmed at the next annual meeting of the Association or the next special meeting of the Association called for that purpose.

4. Removal of Directors. At any regular or special meeting of the Association duly called, any one or more of the directors, may be removed with or without cause by a majority vote of the unit owners present in person or by proxy, and a successor shall be elected at that meeting to fill the vacancy thus created. The notice of any such meeting shall state that such removal is to be considered and any director whose removal has been proposed shall be given an opportunity to be heard at the meeting.

5. Powers and Duties. The Board of Directors shall have all of the powers and duties necessary for the administration of the affairs of the Association, except such powers and duties as by law or by the Declaration or by these Bylaws may not be delegated to the Board of Directors by the unit owners. The powers and duties to be exercised by the Board of Directors shall include, but shall not be limited to the following:

- (a) Operation, care, upkeep, maintenance and repair of the general and limited common elements and association property.
- (b) Determination of the amounts required for the operation, maintenance and other affairs of the Association and the making of such expenditures.

- (c) Collection of the common expenses from the unit owners.
- (d) Employment and dismissal of such personnel as secretary for the efficient maintenance, upkeep and repair of the common elements.

- (h) Purchasing units of the condominium project at foreclosure or other judicial sales in the name of the Association, or its designee, on behalf of all the unit owners as provided in these Bylaws.
- (i) Selling, leasing, mortgaging, voting the votes appurtenant to (other than for the election of directors), or otherwise dealing with units of the condominium acquired by the Association or its designee on behalf of all the unit owners.
- (j) Obtaining insurance or bonds pursuant to the provisions of these Bylaws.
- (k) Making additions and improvements to, or alterations of, the common elements; provided, however, that no such project may be undertaken by the board if the total cost will exceed the amount of five hundred dollars ($500.00), unless the unit owners have enacted a resolution authorizing the project by a vote of seventy-five percent (75%) of the unit owners present in person or by proxy at a meeting at which a quorum is constituted. This limitation shall not be applicable to repairs or maintenance undertaken pursuant to paragraph (a) above.
- (l) Subject to Article IV Paragraph 15, enforcement by legal means of the provisions of the Oregon Condominium Act, the Declaration filed thereunder, these Bylaws and any rules and regulations adopted hereunder.

- (m) Filing with the Real Estate Agency an annual report and any amendment thereto in accordance with ORS Sections 100.250 and 100.260.
- (n) Preparation, review and updating of the reserve study required under ORS 100.175.
- (o) Reviewing at least annually the insurance coverage of the Association.

6. Managing Agent or Manager. On behalf of the Association, the Board of Directors may employ or contract for a managing agent or a manager at a compensation to be established by the Board of Directors. The Board of Directors may delegate to the managing agent or manager such duties and powers as the Board of Directors may authorize. In the absence of such appointment, the Board of Directors shall act as manager.

7. Organizational Meetings. Within fourteen (14) days following the annual meeting of the Association or following any meeting at which an election of directors has been held, the Board of Directors shall hold an organizational meeting at such place and time as shall have been fixed by the directors at the meeting at which the election was held.

8. Regular and Special Meetings. Regular meetings of the Board of Directors may be held at such time and place as shall be determined from time-to-time by a majority of the directors. Special meetings of the Board of Directors may be called by the chairperson or majority of the Board and must be called by the secretary at the written request of at least two directors. Notice of any special meeting shall be given to each director, personally or by mail, telephone or telegraph at least seven (7) days prior to the day named for such meeting and shall state the time, place and purpose of such meeting. Any unit owner may attend a Board meeting except that at the discretion of the Board the matters set forth in ORS.420(1)(a)(b)(c) may be considered in executive session.

9. Waiver of Notice. Any director may, at any time, waive notice of any meeting of the Board of Directors in writing, and such waiver shall be deemed equivalent to the giving of such notice. Attendance by a director at any meeting of the Board shall constitute a waiver by him/her of notice of the time and place thereof, except where a director attends the meeting for the express purpose of objecting to the transaction of any business because the meeting is not lawfully called or convened. If all of the directors are present at any meeting of the Board, no notice shall be required and any business may be transacted at such meeting.

10. Quorum of Board of Directors. At all meetings of the Board of Directors, a majority of the directors shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business, and the votes of a majority of the directors present at a meeting at which a quorum is present shall constitute the decision of the directors. If less than a quorum should be present, a majority of those present may adjourn the meeting from time-to-time. At any such adjourned meeting at which a quorum is present, any business which might have been transacted at the meeting originally called may be transacted without further notice.

11. Compensation. No director shall receive any compensation from the Association for acting as such.

12. Liability and Indemnification of Directors, Officers, Manager or Managing Agent. The directors and officers shall not be liable to the Association of the unit owners for any mistake of judgment, negligence, or otherwise, except for their own willful misconduct or bad faith. The Association shall indemnify and hold harmless each director and officer and the manager or managing agent, if any, against all contractual liability to others arising out of contracts made by the Board of Directors, officers, manager or managing agent on behalf of the Association, unless any such contract shall have been made in bad faith or contrary to the provisions of the Declaration or of these Bylaws. Each director and officer and the manager or managing agent, if any, shall be indemnified by the Association against all expenses and liabilities, including attorney's fees reasonably incurred or imposed upon them in connection with any proceeding to which they may be a party, or, in which they may become involved, by reasons of being or having been a director, officer, manager or managing agent, and shall be indemnified upon any reasonable settlement thereof; provided, however, there shall be no indemnity if the director, officer, manager or managing agent is adjudged guilty of willful nonfeasance, misfeasance or malfeasance in the performance of his duties.

13. Fidelity Bonds. The Board of Directors may require that any person or entity, including, but not limited to, employees of any professional manager, who handles or is responsible for Association funds shall furnish such fidelity bond as the Board deems adequate. The premiums on such bonds may be paid by the Association.

14. Insurance. The Board of Directors shall obtain the insurance required in Article IV of these Bylaws. - (f) Any deficit in common expenses for any prior period.
- (g) Utilities for the common areas and other utilities with a common meter or commonly billed, such as water, sewer and gas.

- (h) Any other items properly chargeable as a common expense of the Association.

3. Assessment of Common Expenses. All unit owners shall be obliged to pay common expenses assessed to them by the Board of Directors on behalf of the Association pursuant to these Bylaws and the Declaration. Assessments may not be waived due to limited or nonuse of common elements. The developer shall be assessed as the unit owner of any unsold unit, but such assessment shall be prorated to the date of sale of the unit as assessments for reserves need not be paid until closing of such sale. The Board of Directors, on behalf of the Association, shall assess the common expenses against the unit owners from time-to-time, and at least annually, and shall take prompt action to collect from a unit owner any common expense due which remains unpaid by him for more than thirty (30) days from the due date for its payment.

4. Special Assessments.

- (a) Capital Improvements. In the case of any duly authorized capital improvement to the common elements, the Board of Directors may, by resolution, establish separate assessments for the same, which may be treated as capital contributions by the unit owners and the proceeds of which shall be used only for the specific capital improvements described in the resolution.
- (b) Reserve Trust Funds. In establishing reserves for the replacement of the common elements, the Declarant has established at least one trust fund and the Board of Directors may elect by resolution to establish one or more trust funds for the replacement of specific items which normally will require replacement in more than three years and in not less than thirty years, in which case the Board shall either designate part of the regular assessment or establish separate assessments for such purposes. The proceeds therefrom shall be held in such trust funds and used only for the designated replacements. Pursuant to ORS 100.175(7), future assessments for the reserve account may be reduced, eliminated or increased by an affirmative vote of not less than seventy five (75%) of all voting rights, following the second year after the unit owners have assumed administrative responsibility for the association under ORS 100.210.

5. Default in Payment of Common Expenses. In the event of default by any unit owner in paying to the Association the assessed common expenses, such unit owner shall be obligated to pay interest at the rate of ten percent (10%) per annum on such common expenses from the due date thereof, together with all expenses, including attorney's fees incurred by the Association in any proceeding brought to collect such unpaid expenses or any appeal therefrom. The Board of Directors shall have the right and duty to recover for the Association such common expenses, together with interest thereon, and expenses of the proceeding, including attorneys' fees, by an action brought against such unit owner or by foreclosure of the lien upon the unit granted by the Oregon Condominium Act. The Board of Directors shall notify the holder of any first mortgage upon a unit of any default not cured within sixty (60) days of the date of default.

6. Foreclosure of Liens for Unpaid Common Expenses. In any suit brought by the Association to foreclose a lien on a unit because of unpaid common expenses, the unit owner shall be required to pay a reasonable rental for the use of the unit during the pendency of the suit and the plaintiff in such foreclosure suit shall be entitled to the appointment of a receiver to collect such rental. The Board of Directors, acting on behalf of the Association, shall have the power to purchase such unit at the foreclosure sale and to acquire, hold, lease, mortgage, vote the votes appurtenant to, convey, or otherwise deal with the unit. An action to recover a money judgment for unpaid common expenses shall be maintainable without foreclosing the liens securing the same.

7. First Mortgages. Where the purchaser or mortgagee of a unit obtains title to the unit as a result of foreclosure of a first mortgage or by deed in lieu of foreclosure, such purchaser or mortgagee, his/her successors and assigns, shall not be liable for any of the common expenses chargeable to such unit which became due prior to the acquisition of title to such unit by such purchaser or mortgagee. Such unpaid share of common expenses, to the extent uncollectible from the foreclosed owner(s), shall be a common expense and reallocated on a pro rata basis to all units, including the mortgaged unit.

2. Records of Receipts and Expenditures. The Board of Directors or its designee shall keep detailed, accurate records in chronological order of the receipts and expenditures affecting the common elements, itemizing the maintenance and repair expenses of the common elements and any other expenses incurred. Any voucher in excess of five hundred dollars ($500) shall require the signature of the chairperson.

5. Reports and Audits. An annual statement of the Association consisting of a balance sheet and income and expense statement shall be rendered by the Board of Directors to all unit owners and to all mortgagees of units who have requested the same within ninety (90) days after the end of each fiscal year in compliance with ORS § 100.480. The board shall maintain and distribute the documents, information and records required by ORS 100.480(1) and (4). From time-to-time the Board of Directors, at the expense of the Association, may obtain an audit of the books and records pertaining to the Association and furnish copies thereof to the owners and such mortgagees. At any time any owner or mortgagee may, at his own expense, cause an audit or inspection to be made of the books and records of the Association.

6. Notice of Sale, Mortgage, Rental or Lease. Immediately upon the sale, mortgage, rental or lease of any unit, the unit owner shall promptly inform the secretary or manager of the name and address of said vendee, mortgagee, lessee or tenant.

MAINTENANCE AND USE OF CONDOMINIUM PROPERTY

1. Maintenance and Repair. Except as otherwise provided herein for damage or destruction caused by casualty:

- (a) Units. All maintenance of said repairs to any unit shall be made by the owner of such unit, who shall keep the same in good order, condition and repair and shall do all redecorating, painting and staining which at any time may be necessary to maintain the good appearance and condition of the unit. In addition, each unit owner shall be responsible for the maintenance, repair, or replacement of windows and doors and any plumbing, heating or air conditioning fixtures, telephones, water heaters, fans, lighting or other appliances and accessories that may be in or connected with the unit.
- (b) Common Elements. All maintenance, repairs and replacements to the general and limited common elements shall be made by the Association. A unit owner shall not paint or decorate any portion of the exterior of the buildings or other general or limited common elements without first obtaining written consent of the Board of Directors.

3. Damage or Destruction by Casualty of Condominium Property.

- (a) In the event of damage or destruction by casualty of condominium property, the damage or destruction shall be repaired, reconstructed or rebuilt unless, within fourteen (14) days of such damage or destruction, the Board of Directors or more than ten percent (10%) of the unit owners shall have requested a special meeting of the Association. Such special meeting must be held within sixty (60) days of the date of damage or destruction. At the time of such meeting, unless ninety percent (90%) of the unit owners, whether in person, by writing or by proxy, vote not to repair, reconstruct or rebuild the damaged property, the damage or destruction shall be repaired, reconstructed or rebuilt. In the case of substantial damage or destruction, timely written notice thereof shall be given to the unit owners and their mortgagees.

- (b) The Association shall be responsible for repairing, reconstructing or rebuilding all such damage or destruction to the common elements and, to the extent of the Association's insurance coverage, all such damage or destruction to the units. - (c) If, due to the act of neglect of a unit owner or of a member of his family or his household pet or of a guest or other authorized occupant or visitor of such unit owner, damage shall be caused to the common elements or to a unit owned by others, or maintenance, repairs or replacements shall be required which would otherwise be a common expense, such unit owner shall pay for such damage and such maintenance, repairs and replacements as may be determined by the Association, to the extent not covered by the Association's insurance.
- (d) In the event the insurance proceeds paid to the Association are not used to repair, reconstruct or rebuild the damaged or destroyed property, the Association shall distribute the proceeds among the unit owners and their mortgagees (as their interests may appear) in the same proportion as their respective interest in the general common elements.

4. Condemnation. In the event of a taking in condemnation by eminent domain of part or all of the common elements, the award made for such taking shall be payable to the Association. If such proceedings are instituted or such acquisition is sought by a condemning authority as to any portion of the property, prompt notice thereof shall be given to the unit owners and their mortgagees. If seventy-five percent (75%) or more of the unit owners duly and promptly approve the repair or restoration of such common elements, the Board of Directors shall arrange for the same, which shall be paid out of the proceeds of the award. In the event seventy-five percent (75%) or more of the unit owners do not duly and promptly approve the repair and restoration of such common elements, the Board of Directors shall disburse the net proceeds of such award to the unit owners and their mortgagees (as their interests may appear) in the same proportions as the respective undivided interests of the unit owners in the general common elements.

- (b) Use of Common Elements. The common elements shall be used for the furnishing of services and facilities for which the same are reasonably intended for the enjoyment of the units. Unit occupants shall exercise extreme care not to make noises which may disturb other unit occupants, including the use of musical instruments, radios, televisions and amplifiers. No unlawful use shall be made of the condominium nor any part thereof, and all valid laws, zoning ordinances, and regulations of all governmental bodies having jurisdiction thereof shall be observed.

- (d) Animals. No animals or fowls shall be raised, kept or permitted within the condominiums or any part thereof, except domestic dogs, cats or other household pets kept within a unit. No such dogs, cats or pets shall be permitted to run at large nor shall be kept, bred or raised for commercial purposes or in unreasonable numbers. Any inconvenience, damage or unpleasantness caused by such pets shall be the responsibility of the respective owners thereof. All dogs shall be kept on a leash while outside a unit. A unit owner may be required to remove a pet after receipt of two notices in writing from the Board of Directors of violations of any rules, regulations or restrictions governing pets within the condominium.
- (e) Exterior Lighting or Noisemaking Devices. Except with the consent of the Board of Directors of the Association or the managing agent, no exterior lighting or noisemaking devices shall be installed or maintained on any unit and no antenna nor transmitting towers shall be affixed to the general or limited common elements.

such leases or rentals shall provide that the terms of the lease shall be subject in all respects to the provisions of the Declaration and these Bylaws and that any failure by the lessee or tenant to comply with the terms of such documents shall be a default under the lease. Other than the foregoing, there is no restriction on the right of any unit owner to lease or rent his unit.

- (i) Signs. Unless written approval is first obtained from the Board of Directors, no sign of any kind shall be displayed to the public view on or from any such unit or the common elements except signs used by the developer to advertise units for sale or lease.
- (j) Trash. No part of any unit or any part of the common elements shall be used or maintained as a dumping ground for rubbish, trash, garbage or other waste. No garbage, trash or other waste shall be kept or maintained on any part of the property except in sanitary containers in the designated areas.
- (k) Association Rules and Regulations. In addition, the Board of Directors from time-to-time may adopt, modify, or revoke such rules and regulations governing the conduct of persons and the operation and use of the units and common elements as it may deem necessary or appropriate in order to assure the peaceful and orderly use and enjoyment of the condominium property. However, the Board of Directors cannot adopt any rule or regulation banning the keeping of pets or residency by children. Any modification of the rules or regulations by the Board may itself be modified by vote of not less than seventy-five percent (75%) of the unit owners present, in person or by proxy at any meeting, the notice of which shall have stated that such modification or revocation of rules and regulations will be under consideration. A copy of the rules and regulations, upon adoption, and a copy of each amendment, modification or revocation thereof, shall be delivered by the secretary/treasurer promptly to each unit owner and shall be binding upon all unit owners and occupants of all units from the date of delivery.
- (l) Insurance. Nothing shall be done or kept in any such unit or in the common elements which will increase the cost of insurance of the common elements. No owner shall permit anything to be done or kept in his/her unit or in the common elements which will result in cancellation of insurance on any unit or any part of the common elements.

6. Right of Entry. A unit owner shall grant the right of entry to the Board of Directors, managing agent, manager or any other person authorized by the Board of Directors in the case of any emergency originating in or threatening his unit or other condominium property, whether or not the owner is present at the time. A unit owner shall also permit such persons to enter his/her unit for the purpose of performing installation, alterations or repairs to any common element and for the purpose of inspection to verify that the unit owner is complying with the restrictions and requirements described in Section 5 of this Article, provided that requests for entry are made in advance and that such entry is at a time convenient to the owner. The owner of any unit adjoining an outside fire escape shall permit access through his/her unit to the fire escape in the case of any emergency. Any damage caused to the unit in order to obtain such emergency access, to the extent not covered by insurance, shall be the responsibility of the person seeking access.

7. Easements and Developer. The developer and its agents, successors and assigns shall have an easement over and upon the common elements for the purpose of constructing additional phases, making repairs to existing structures and carrying out sales and rental activities necessary or convenient for the sale or rental of units owned by the developer as model units and the right to use a unit as a sales office.

8. Abatement and Enjoining of Violations. The violation of any rule or regulation adopted hereunder or the breach of any Bylaw contained herein or of any provision of the Declaration shall give the Board of Directors, acting on behalf of the Association, the right, in addition to any other rights set forth in these Bylaws:

- (a) to enter the unit in which, or as to which, such violation exists and to summarily abate and remove, at the expense of the defaulting unit owner, any structure, thing, or condition that may exist there contrary to the intent and meaning of the provisions hereof, and the Board of Directors shall not thereby be deemed guilty of any manner of trespass; or,
- (b) to enjoin, abate, or remedy such thing or condition by appropriate legal proceedings.

Article VIII, paragraph (5), section (h) of the bylaws of the Association of Unit Owners of George H. Williams Condominium, recorded April 12, 2000 Multnomah County Records, No. 2000050935, is amended as follows:

Leasing and Rental of Units:

All such leases or rentals shall provide that the terms of the lease shall be subject in all respects to the provisions of the Declaration and these Bylaws and that the failure by the lessee or tenant to comply with the terms of such documents shall be a default under the lease.

No owner may rent his/her unit for transient or motel purposes. At any one time, no more than 20% of the units may be rented or leased.

No unit owner may lease or rent less than his/her entire unit. All leases must be 12 months or longer in duration, except with the written consent of the Board of Directors of the Association.

Any unit owner desiring to rent or lease must provide 30 day written notice to the Board prior to the unit being offered for rent/lease, except with the written consent of the Board.

Upon closing of a unit's sale or commencement of a lease, the unit will be assessed a non-refundable fee to cover building wear-and-tear. This fee is equal to one-month's home owners association ("HOA") assessment for that unit as of the date of the closing or date on the lease.
